

Guest Speaker

His Excellency Ambassador Eliahu Ben Elissar

Ambassador Eliahu Ben Elissar, MK, was Israel's first Ambassador to Egypt. Born in Poland and smuggled out of the Europe of Hitler's holocaust to Israel, he studied in England and France and took his doctoral studies at the University of Geneva. He has served with Israel's foreign ministry in France and America, as well as in Egypt. Following President Sadat's visit to Jerusalem in 1977, Dr. Ben Elissar headed the Israeli delegation to the Cairo talks. Ambassador Ben Elissar was in charge of information for the Herut movement between 1971 and 1977, and became Director General of the Prime Minister's office when Menachem Begin was elected Prime minister in 1977. He is co-author of the "Arab-Israel Conflict" and is author of "The Foreign Policy of the Third Reich and the Jews". Dr. Ben Elissar, a former Chairman of the Knesset Defense and Foreign Affairs Committee, currently serves as a member of that committee.
