The Jewish National Fund-Keren Kayemeth Latin Division comprises the Latin Community of Greater Miami, all of Latin America, Central America, and all Spanish speaking countries. This is a new division of JNF-Keren Kayemeth. It was conceived by Mordecai Dayan. He envisioned its importance in furthering the work of the JNF and its future growth. According to Consul General Yehoshua Trigor there are over 15,000 Latin American Jews in Southern Florida. Nily Falic has been named to head this Division by virtue of her acquaintance with South America, as well as with Israel. She toured South America with Mr. and Mrs. Mordecai Dayan last year, and they were received with much graciousness and a very warm welcome, and left a maximum impression on the leadership and communities they visited. "The Latin Division of JNF-Keren Kayemeth Leisrael is viewed as a great source of future potential in human and financial resources for the coming decades," said Mordecai Dayan, World Co-Chairman Keren Kayemeth Leisrael,

The headquarters of the Latin Division are to serve as a place of welcome to all Latin American Jewry, so that they may find it a home away from home, and feel that they are not isolated. As the saying goes, "Mi Casa Su Casa", and the Latin Americans are urged to visit and make themselves feel at home.
