Dear Mr. Mildenberg:

I've just returned from a trip to Israel, followed by a brief trip to Los Angeles, otherwise I would have written to you much sooner to thank, compliment and congratulate you upon your appointment as the first National Chairman of the Advisory Committee of the JNF/Keren Kayemeth Leisrael Latin Division.

Before he left for Israel, Mordecai Dayan spent a day with me in New York reviewing the various meetings, discussions, problems and accomplishments relating to the Latin Division's work in Miami and in other cities. He told me about your great commitment to our historic and sacred work in Israel and your determination to help us expand the work of our Latin Division. I look forward to meeting and greeting you and I also look forward to our mutual success and accomplishment in behalf of Eretz Yisroel.

With kindest and warmest personal wishes, I am

Sincerely yours,

Dr. Samuel I. Cohen
